ABOUT AVIVA

Aviva Corporation Limited is a resource development company listed on the Australian Stock Exchange (ASX: AVA) and the Botswana Stock Exchange (BSE: Aviva), with its head office in Perth. The company is well funded, and is developing a pipeline of energy and metal projects both in Africa and Australia. Aviva’s strategy is to identify and develop early resource opportunities which are well located to demand and infrastructure. The Aviva management team has strong resource and capital market expertise, with proven expertise in the delivery, generation, exploration, approval and development of resource projects.

In Africa, the company is exploring for gold and base metals, at its West Kenyan joint venture project with Lonmin Plc. Aviva also has an interest in two coal-based energy assets – the Mmamantswe project in Botswana, and the Coolimba project in Western Australia.
