Discovery Metals Limited

Blumont recapitalisation update

On 19 September 2013, the board of Discovery Metals Limited (Discovery Metals or Company) (ASX: DML) announced a strategic recapitalisation proposal (Original Announcement). As part of that recapitalisation proposal, Singapore Stock Exchange (SGX) listed investor, Blumont Group Limited (SGX: A33) (Blumont), conditionally agreed to subscribe for 100,000 five year convertible bonds with a face value of USD1,000 per bond, to be convertible into fully paid ordinary shares in the capital of Discovery Metals at a price of AUD0.15 per share (Convertible Bonds). The terms of the Convertible Bonds were agreed in a binding term sheet that was executed between Blumont and Discovery Metals (Term Sheet).

The Convertible Bonds were expected to raise USD100 million.

As noted in the Original Announcement, the Term Sheet was conditional on a number of conditions being satisfied by 19 December 2013 (Sunset Date). The conditions precedent have not been satisfied by the Sunset Date, and as a result of this, the Term Sheet has lapsed. The Company has reserved all of its rights against Blumont.

Discovery Metals remains in discussions with Blumont as to an amended recapitalisation proposal and the Company will update the market as soon as further information is available.
