The group continues to be funded by a mix of working capital, term loans and project funding. The working capital has reduced due to the increased level of project funding, and the group continues to manage its working capital prudently.