Vancouver, Canada - February 20, 2013 - Hana Mining Ltd. (the "Company" or "Hana") (TSX-V: HMG)(FRANKFURT:4LH)(BOTSWANA:HANA) and Cupric Canyon Capital LP ("Cupric") are pleased to announce that Cupric has indirectly acquired all of the outstanding common shares of Hana (the "Hana Shares"), pursuant to the previously announced statutory plan of arrangement (the "Arrangement") involving Hana, Cupric, Cuprous Capital Ltd., a wholly owned subsidiary of Cupric, and Hana's securityholders. Under the Arrangement, shareholders of Hana received C$0.82 in cash for each Hana Share, representing a premium of approximately 88% to the 20-day volume weighted average price of the Hana Shares on the TSX Venture Exchange as of October 23, 2012. The Company's securityholders approved the Arrangement on December 27, 2012 at a special meeting of securityholders (the "Meeting") wherein the special resolution approving the Arrangement was approved by more than two-thirds of the votes cast by Hana shareholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting, as well as two-thirds of the votes cast by Hana shareholders and optionholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting, voting as a single class. A resolution approving the Arrangement was also passed by a majority of the minority shareholders of the Company.

The Hana Shares will be de-listed from the TSX Venture Exchange and the Botswana Stock Exchange, and Hana will cease to be a reporting issuer under the securities legislation of British Columbia and Alberta.
